

Dean's Regulation No. 10/2023

Rules for conducting study control during the first semester of study

The Dean of the Faculty of Environmental Sciences of the Czech University of Life Sciences hereby establishes specific rules for the control of student participation in lessons for the purposes of registration of FZP students pursuant to Article 7(8) and (10) of the study and examination regulations for studies in bachelor's and master's degree programmes of the Czech University of Life Sciences in Prague of 16 June 2022 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Study and Examination Regulations').

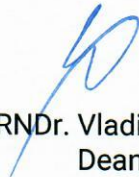

For first-year full-time students in bachelor's degree programmes accredited at the FZP, the attendance control will be carried out in the selected Introduction to Study ZXZ103Z, ZXZ701Z (credit from previous studies is not recognised due to the limited validity of the OSH training that is subject to credit), Introduction to Study ZXX132Z, Introduction to EDS ZVX103Z and Geology BEKOL ZOZ125E courses. The specific method of controlling attendance is determined by the course guarantors.

For first-year students of combined studies in bachelor's degree programmes, second- and third-year students of full-time and combined studies in bachelor's degree programmes, and first- and second-year students of full-time and combined studies in master's degree programmes, the method of controlling attendance is determined by the guarantors of individual courses.

According to Article 7(8) of the Study and Examination Regulations, student participation in classes is compulsory. Repeated unexcused absence from classes is considered a failure to fulfil study obligations and may be grounds for termination or interruption of studies in accordance with Article 7(10) of the Study and Examination Regulations. Upon interruption of studies, the student loses all rights and benefits of a university student (including health insurance).

This Regulation shall enter into force and effect on the date of its announcement. This Regulation repeals the previous Regulation No. 7/2022. Rules for conducting student attendance controls during the first semester of study.
